Options in Birmingham :

Private Civil Rights Walking Tour :

Birmingham's role in the Civil Rights Movement came to the forefront when in 1963, the 16th Street Baptist Church was bombed by the KKK (Ku Klux Klan) killing four young girls and injuring many more. This story and many more, including a visit to the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute (excluding Sunday-Wednesday), is included on your walking tour. After your tour, you will better understand the struggles of the Civil Rights Movement in the 1950s and 1960s as well as present day struggles that unfortunately still endure.

Barber Vintage Motorsports Museum

Whether or not you are a motorcycle or car enthusiast, the sheer size and collection of motorcycles and cars in this museum will impress you! Since George Barber's inception to create a state-of-the-art museum in 1999 until now, the museum has over 1,600 motorcycles in its collection from 200 different manufactures from 20 countries. In addition to the museums motorcycle collection, it has the world's most extensive Lotus collection, not to mention the numerous rare racecars. In addition to the museum, on almost any given day, you can view racecars practicing in the racetrack behind the museum from their viewing platform. Truly a one-of-a-kind experience you can only find in Birmingham!

Birmingham Civil Rights Institute

Immerse yourself in the Civil Rights Movement and Birmingham's role in the struggle for justice in the 1950s and 1960s when the city was known as "Bombingham" with the numerous bombs that were targeted at the homes of Black residents. The institute (museum) in itself is a history of the struggle to recount the Civil Rights struggle with numerous obstacles the institute had to overcome to even exist!

16th Street Baptist Church Tour

It is said that the bombing of this church in 1963 that killed four small children was the catalyst that brought the Civil Rights Movement to the forefront not only in the USA but worldwide. Demand for change was echoed throughout the USA and this senseless murder. On your tour learn of the days leading up to this historic event and the years afterwards that changed not only Birmingham but a country.
