Private Chicago Architectural Walking Tour (in French):

Our most popular tour and one you will not forget! Your knowledgeable and personable guide will walk you through some of the most memorable parts of downtown Chicago, passing by various significant Arc Deco and Modern skyscrapers. After your tour you will then understand why Chicago is perhaps the most well-known city in the USA for its architecture.

Private City Tour (in English):

On your three-hour tour of the "Windy City", your guide will narrate historical facts and architectural significant buildings from the turn of the century to present day. In addition to driving through both the North and South business and residential areas, your tour will take you through three of Chicago's most important parks: Lincoln, Washington and Grant. This is a perfect tour to orientate yourself to the third largest city in the USA and ideal to decide what area (neighborhood) you would like to explore further after your tour.

Private Tour of Chicago Ethnic Neighborhoods (in English):

Rarely do travelers visit the neighborhoods outside the tourist areas. Chicago is full of numerous ethnic neighborhoods and on this 3 hour private tour you will visit five unique ethnic neighbors in the comfort of our vehicle with our knowledgeable guide: Old Town (founded by the Germans), Lincoln Park (also know as the Polish Quarter), Bucktown/Wicker Park (a mixture of Norwegian, German and Polish immigrants), Ukrainian Village, and finally Little Italy. All these neighborhoods and other areas of cultural interest await you!
