Elvis City Tour:

Most City Tours are just that, a City Tour with highlights of certain points of interest for the visitor. This tour is unique where Memphis is synonymous with Elvis and therefore the two can't be separated. Our tour takes you throughout Memphis on the sights where Elvis hung out. Of course the tour will also pass by other important sites where the visitor may want to go when exploring this rich musical city. Your guide is very knowledgeable on most things Elvis, so be prepared to walk away knowing more about Elvis you thought was possible!

Elvis Tupelo Tour:

This tour is definitely for Elvis aficionados as you will learn all about Elvis, from his childhood to his rise to fame and finally his tragic death. The two hour ride from Memphis to Tupelo (and the return) will leave you ample time to know the King as you never knew or heard before! Visit various stomping grounds of Elvis, such as his Birthplace (entrance included in this tour), Tupelo Hardware, the diner where Elvis hung out frequently and many more important sights and/or places that were important to Elvis.

Country Music Hall of Fame Museum

The Country Music Hall of Fame has a collection of over 2.5 million historic objects on two vast floors devoted to Country Music. You will follow the evolution of Country music in the context of American history (Americana). You will discover this evolution among numerous artifacts and videos carefully chosen and displayed throughout the museum of artists such as Johnny Cash, Dolly Parton, Garth Brooks, Taylor Swift, Luke Bryan and many more!

Country Music Hall of Fame Museum + Studio B Tour

In addition to your entrance to the Country Music Hall of Fame museum mentioned above, the RCA Studio B Tour once recorded famous musicians such as Elvis Presley, Willie Nelson, Chet Atkins, among others. Come visit a still active studio where a new generation of Country artists hope to follow in the footsteps of the Country music legends before them!

Grand Ole Opry Backstage Guided Tour:

To visit Nashville without seeing the Grand Ole Opry is like going to Rome without seeing the Coliseum or Paris without seeing the Eiffel Tower. Here is where the most famous legends of Country music have performed. On your tour, listen to your guide recount the numerous stories of these legends. Providing there are no performances the night of your visit, stand on the very stage where the great musicians of Country have stood before you. All this and more awaits you at the "temple" of Country music. If you choose to take this tour after a concert (at night), you can discover what it's like backstage after a concert. Here you will have an appreciation of the numerous famous artists that have been here before you and if time permits and/or no restrictions during your tour, you will see Studio A, where the 70's show "Hee Haw" became part of the American culture.

Ryman Auditorium Self-Guided Tour :

Known as the "South of Nashville", this national historic building is home to all the great Country musicians from 1943 à 1974, such as Loretta Lynn, Johnny Cash, Minnie Pearl, Hang Williams, to name just a few. This was the first Grand Ole Opry before the new one was constructed (noted above), but it is considered by many as "THE" Grand Ole Opry. Concerts are still performed here, but due to the increased popularity of Country music, it was replaced in 1975 by the new concert venue. Your self-guided tour will guide you through the history of Country music from past to present with numerous artifacts, including iconic photos and memorabilia. This visit is sure to please those who know little of Country music as well as enthusiasts of this true American music.

City Trolley Tour

Take a unique City Tour of Nashville on an original reproduction trolley passing numerous historic and tourist sites, such as: Country Music Hall of Fame, Ryman Auditorium, The Parthenon (in Centennial Park), to name just a few sites. This tour will be like none other!
