Private Civil Rights Walking Tour :

Birmingham's role in the Civil Rights Movement came to the forefront when in 1963, the 16th Street Baptist Church was bombed by the KKK (Ku Klux Klan) killing four young girls and injuring many more. These stories and many more await you. After your tour, you will better understand the struggles of the Civil Rights Movement in the 1950s and 1960s as well as present day struggles that unfortunately still endure.

Barber Vintage Motorsports Museum (Leeds, Alabama)

Whether or not you are a motorcycle or car enthusiast, the sheer size and collection of motorcycles and cars in this museum will impress you! Since George Barber's inception to create a state-of-the-art museum in 1999 until now, the museum has over 1,600 motorcycles in its collection from 200 different manufacturers from 20 countries. In addition to the museum's motorcycle collection, it has the world's most extensive Lotus collection, not to mention the numerous rare racecars. In addition to the museum, on almost any given day, you can view racecars practicing in the racetrack behind the museum from their viewing platform. Truly a one-of-a-kind experience you can only find in Birmingham!

16th Street Baptist Church Tour

It is said that the bombing of this church in 1963 that killed four small children was the catalyst that brought the Civil Rights Movement to the forefront not only in the USA but worldwide. Demand for change was echoed throughout the USA and this senseless murder. On your tour learn of the days leading up to this historic event and the years afterwards that changed not only Birmingham but a country.

The Fish Market (Southside)

The Fish Market (Southside) is a local favorite, and you can't go wrong with any dish at this restaurant! Our carefully selected menu allows you to taste the most popular local dishes with no waiting in line since your table will be reserved for you in advance. Lunch and dinner menu items include a choice of grilled or fried fish of the day, red beans and rice (a Southern local favorite), fish or shrimp tacos, grilled chicken over pasta or chicken Kabobs over rice. A child's menu for children under 10 is also offered that includes Fish, shrimp or chicken "fingers" (filets), served with Hushpuppies and Fries. A non-alcoholic beverage is also included with all dining options.
